

Alberto Oddenino is Professor of International Law in the Department of Law of the University of Turin where he also teaches European Union Law and International Economic Law. He holds a Ph. D in International Law from the University of Milan and he was Fellow in the TMR Project (Training and Mobility for Researchers) of the EU Commission.

Member of the Ph.D Board (Dottorato in Diritti e Istituzioni) of the Department of Law in the University of Turin, he is also Member of the Scientific Committee of the Master of Laws in International Crime and Justice (jointly organised by UNICRI and the University of Turin) and of the Board of Editors of the Review 'Diritto Pubblico Comparato ed Europeo'.

He is Member of the Faculty of the Center for Transnational Legal Studies (Georgetown University, London) and of the Faculty of the International University College of Turin.

He is Secretary General of the World Political Forum (WPF) and Secretary of the Italian Society for International Organization (SIOI - Piemonte e Valle d'Aosta Section).

He is Member of the Italian Society of International Law (SIDI), of the Association of European and Comparative Public Law and of the Consulta regionale europea.

He is Lecturer for the Ph.D Erasmus Mundus in Legal Informatics, for the LL.M in International Trade Law (jointly organised by the ILO International Training Center and the University of Turin), for the LL.M in International Crime and Justice (jointly organised by UNICRI and the University of Turin), for the LL.M in Public Procurement for Sustainable Development (jointly organised by the ILO International Training Center and the University of Turin) and for the Post-graduate School for Legal Professions.

Lecturer in international arbitration for the Piedmont Arbitration Chamber (CAP) and Arbitrator for the 'Willem C. Vis' Commercial Arbitration Moot in Wien, he is Supervisor of the 'Moot Courts Project' and Coordinator of Students' International Exchange Programs of the Department of Law of the University of Turin.

His current fields of interest are Internet International Law, International Trade Law and non-economic values, International Arbitration, Health Law

Professor Oddenino has also given speeches in various social and cultural happenings such as Social Media Week 2012, Italian Internet Governance Forum 2012, Biennale Democrazia 2013, Salone internazionale del Libro di Torino 2013.

He is Member of the Turin Bar since 2001.